Although most interior designers do many kinds of projects, some specialize in one area of interior design. Some specialize in the type of building space - usually residential or commercial - while others specialize in a certain design element or type of client, such as healthcare facilities. The most common specialties of this kind are lighting, kitchen and bath, and closet designs. However, designers can specialize in almost any area of design, including acoustics and noise abatement, security, electronics and home theatres, home spas, and indoor gardens. The room of my dream

I live with my parents. They do their best to provide me with comfortable and convenient conditions. As we live in 3rooms flat I have my own room. I like to have my personal space very much as thus I have a possibility to be alone for some time. Everyone from time to time needs some quiet place to think about life and certain things that excite person. I'm happy to have such an opportunity.

Nevertheless my room is far from the image of my ideal room. I imagine it quite light with modern design and full of modern gadgets.

Unfortunately some pieces of my ideal room are impossible to realize. For example, my room isn't too light and airy as the windows are facing north. Regarding airiness the scheme of house building consists of flats of small area so all the rooms are not so big with low ceiling.

Concerning the design of my ideal room I consider it to be modern and extraordinary. It should underline my personality and express my inner world. I'm keen on graphics so I have the posters on the walls.

I do not like a lot of furniture in the room. I think that big number of its pieces make the space dusty and rather limited. So in order to bring my room to the ideal I only left cozy brown sofa, a wardrobe and computer table with a plenty of shelves where I keep all necessary books and magazines. Besides this I have stylish chandelier and two additional lamps for night readings.

I'm sure that we are able to realize all our dreams. But I'm also a realistic person so I try to make my room as closer to the ideal as possible using all available means. In spite that there are a lot of things to do yet I can say that I'm a happy owner of the room of my dreams due to the understanding and help of my parents.

THE TOWER OF LONDON

Text

The Tower of London is a very old building in London. It is nine hundred years old. The Tower of London stands on the Thames.

In the early days of the history of England the English kings lived in the Tower. Then it was a prison where many people died, black ravens had much food near the Tower in those years.

The black ravens live in the gardens of the Tower now. The English people like them very much. A man looks after the ravens and gives them meat in the morning and in the evening.

Now the tower of London is a museum and many people from other countries come to see it. They see the dark stone halls with small windows and thick doors. The walls of the Tower are five metres thick. In the museum they see many old guns.

At ten o'clock every evening the guards lock the big doors of the Tower for the night.

BIG BEN

Text

The Houses of Parliament is a very large building which stands near the Thames. There are two tall towers at the corners of the building and one of them is the Clock Tower.

The English people built the tower and the clock in 1858. The clock has four faces and a very big loud bell. The bell weighs 13 tons. The man in charge of the building was Sir Benjamin Hall. This man was very tall, and the workers and friends called him Big Ben. So they called the bell Big Ben too. Sometimes people call the clock and the Clock Tower Big Ben.

The people of London who live near the Houses of Parliament can hear the sound of the bell every hour. Other people hear it on the radio. On New Year's night people come to the Clock Tower to see the New Year in.

LONDON BRIDGE

Text

London Bridge is two thousand years old. The first bridge was of wood. Then people built the bridge of stone and called it London Bridge. There were houses and shops on it and people paid money when they crossed the bridge.

In 1831 a new bridge rose on the place of the first bridge. But the city grew very quickly and in 1960 the people of London wanted to build a large new bridge at that place.

A very rich American bought the old London Bridge as people buy old things. He wanted to show the old bridge in America to people for money. The people of London liked their old London Bridge. But the city needed money for the new bridge.

The American brought the parts of the bridge on a ship to Arisona in the USA. Workers built the old bridge but there was no river under it now, only a street. No ships pass under it now, only people walk along the street and look at the old bridge. In 1973 the new London Bridge was opened on the place of the old bridge over the Thames.

Meet ... ROBERTA TOMLINSON

I'm from Glasgow, in Scotland, and I'm forty-three years old. I'm married, and my husband's name is Andrew. He's a teacher in a school for blind children. We have three children – two boys and a girl. I have two brothers. They still live in Scotland. I'm a member of Parliament, so I work in London for part of the week and in Scotland for the rest. I enjoy my work very much. I like it because I meet a lot of people and it is my job to help them. I work about fifty or sixty hours a week. We have a flat in London, but my home is Glasgow, and we have a large house there. There are about twelve rooms, and the house is like a hotel. We have a garden where we grow fruit and vegetables. Well, I have very little free time, but when I can, I like having friends for dinner. We sit, eat, drink and talk for hours! I also enjoy the theatre, and I love the Edinburgh Festival, which takes place in August. I like all kinds of music but especially folk music.

Work environment

Text

Working conditions and places of employment vary. Graphic designers employed by large advertising, publishing, or design firms generally work regular hours in well-lighted and comfortable settings. Designers in smaller design consulting firms and those who freelance generally work on a contract, or job, basis. They frequently adjust their workday to suit their clients' schedules and deadlines. Consultants and self-employed designers tend to work longer hours and in smaller, more congested, environments.

Designers may work in their own offices or studios or in clients' offices. Designers who are paid by the assignment are under pressure to please existing clients and to find new ones to maintain a steady income. All designers sometimes face frustration when their designs are rejected or when their work is not as creative as they wish. Graphic designers may work evenings or weekends to meet production schedules, especially in the printing and publishing industries where deadlines are shorter and more frequent.

What are design Ethics?

Text

Design ethics help raise the standard for visual work by establishing behaviors and actions that are acceptable in the professional community and for clients.

While the resources section includes plenty of examples of different ethical standards for designers, the four-point ethical standards from the Academy of Design Professionals is one that is worth striving for.

Design professionals should strive to improve their professional and technical knowledge and skill.

Design professionals should continually seek to raise the standards of aesthetic and functional excellence, design education, research, training, practice and professional excellence.

Design professionals should uphold human rights in all their professional endeavors.

Design professionals should promote the profession and contribute to the knowledge and capability of the design professions as a whole.

No matter your skill level or job title, these standards exemplify the essence of design ethics. It should be quite obvious why they are important. These types of ideals are easy to stand behind; it is the practice that can be a little trickier.

Additionally, the industrial designer may specify aspects concerning the production process, choice of materials and the presentation of a product to the consumer at the point of sale. The use of industrial designers in a product development process improves usability, lowers production costs and leads to the appearance of more appealing products. It is important that in order to be an Industrial Design the product has to be produced in an industrial way, for example, an artisan cannot be considered an industrial designer, although he may challenge the same aspects of a product.

Industrial design in pre-industrial societies

Text

Many of the standard principles of industrial design were known to pre-industrial societies. If one looks first at the most primitive societies one sees that their tools are typified both by fitness for use, and by the way a particular problem could be solved. Paleontologists measure man's evolution partly through the changes in flint implements, the earliest of all found in the Olduvai Valley Gorge in Tanzania. These tools are roughly made, but they show a clear understanding of the nature of the substance from which they are formed, and of the way in which it can be shaped by flaking. There is a narrow range of types - hand-axes, scrapers and pounders - but each type is already adapted to do a different job. In fact, the whole of industrial design is already there in embryo.

More sophisticated flint tools show unsurpassed elegance and control of form. Standardization and even a kind of industrial production were understood by the civilizations of the Ancient World, and particularly by the Romans. A more complex example of standardization is Roman weaponry. Rome relied on the power of her armies, and her soldiers were outfitted to a series of standard patterns.

Contemporary style of decoration

Text

You might like a contemporary style of decorating if you like to keep current with styles, enjoy things that are modern, of today, right now. While it's been thought that modern interiors are cold and minimalistic, today's contemporary interiors are comfortable and welcoming without being cluttered and dark.

It's a style that is equally appropriate for offices and stores, lofts and homes. A contemporary style home can be a quiet and comfortable retreat. To achieve the look of a contemporary home, it's important to stick to some basic rules. Fundamentally, simplicity, subtle sophistication, texture and clean lines help to define contemporary style decorating. Interiors showcase space rather than things. By focusing on colour, space, and shape, contemporary interiors are sleek and fresh.

Keep in Mind

- Use furniture and accessories to make a bold statement in contemporary style interior. Use a basic background and shout out with your favourite colour on a piece that will stand out.
- Less is more! In a contemporary style interior, don't use ruffles, excessive carved details, fringe, or floral prints. Abolish cute and small. Go basic, bare, bold, and structural.
- Floors in a contemporary style home should be bare and smooth in wood, tile, or vinyl. If you must use carpet for sound control or warmth, choose commercial grades. Add colour and texture with plain or geometric-patterned area rugs.

Decorating in tropical style

Text

Tropical chic is one of the most popular looks today. It includes comfort, warmth, and a touch of the exotic, using jungle themes, restful colours, and natural textural elements. It's a style that has fresh appeal with touches of traditional. This is not the multi-coloured jungle look you might choose for a child's room. Instead, it might be defined as "lush minimalism" since it mixes lots of texture and intricate pattern with simple details and a few large accessories. Common motifs include stylized palm trees, large leafed banana plants, monkeys, animal prints, rattan, leather, and grass cloth. This look is most often used in living rooms and family rooms, but can be adapted for master suites and bathrooms as well.

Here are some of the underlying elements and themes of a tropical look room.

- Comfortable upholstered furniture is a must in a tropical room.
- Long horizontal lines underscore a casual look and add to a restful mood, while taller elements such as plants, screens, or artwork add a grand scale.
- Neutral tones including ivory, beige, camel, tan, deep brown, soft gold, and pale yellows are the foundation of a tropical themed room. Greens are also a major element in shades that range from light sage to avocado and from yellow-greens to a green that is nearly black. Accents might be in dark brown, black, or even muted reds.

Colour theory encompasses a multitude of definitions, concepts and design applications. As an introduction, here are a few basic concepts. A colour circle, based on red, yellow and blue, is traditional in the field of art. Sir Isaac Newton developed the first circular diagram of colours in 1666.

Primary colours – red, yellow and blue. In traditional colour theory, these are the 3 pigment colours that can not be mixed or formed by any combination of other colours. All other colours are derived from these 3 hues. Secondary colours – green, orange and purple. These are the colours formed by mixing the primary colours. Tertiary colours – yellow-orange, red-orange, red-purple, blue-purple, blue-green and yellow-green. These are the colours formed by mixing one primary and one secondary colour.

Research shows that colours can have a powerful effect on your state of mind: choose the wrong colour for a room and it could make you feel depressed, sluggish, irritable or anxious every time you walk into it. To make your home work for you, it's a good idea to decide which particular feelings and activities you'd like each room to encourage, and then choose your colour schemes accordingly.

If you're interested in becoming an interior decorator, you probably already have an idea about what good design looks like, or at least what fits your style and taste. However, you can continue to develop this by staying abreast of the trends popular in the industry and watching them change.

Every artist needs a portfolio to showcase their work, and an interior decorator is no different. The purpose of a portfolio is to convince a client or a firm to hire you, so, along with your designs, you should include any other documents (such as letters of recommendation and 'design boards', which are poster boards containing pictures and samples of materials that you use, like fabrics, flooring, wallpaper, etc.) that will convince your future employer (client or firm) of your talents. However, the majority of your portfolio should consist of pictures of work that you have completed. On every job you should be sure to take 'before' and 'after' photos of the rooms that you design. Then, from this group, you should choose 15-20 pictures to present in your portfolio.

ELEMENTS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERIOR DESIGN

1. Translate the text:

Principle 5: Harmony and Unity

A well-designed room is a unified whole that encompasses all the other elements and principles of design. Unity assures a sense of order. There is a consistency of sizes and shapes, a harmony of colour and pattern. The ultimate goal of decorating is to create a room with unity and harmony and a sense of rhythm. Repeating the elements, balancing them throughout the room, and then adding a little variety so that the room has its own sense of personality accomplishes this. Too much unity can be boring; too much variety can cause a restless feeling. The elements and principles of design are general, universal ideas that apply to every aspect of design. Once you know them, and understand their potential, you can combine and use them to create beautiful interiors, regardless of style and taste.
